ERUPTION THOUGHT TO BE DESTRUCTIVE

TOKIO, Japan, Jan. 12.—Fearing that a tremendous loss of life has followed the eruption of the volcano of Sakurajima, on the island of Sakurajima in Kagoshima bay, orders were given today for the immediate dispatch of warships to the scene of the disaster.

Ashes and rocks have been falling in the city of Kagoshima, which has a population of about 65,000 souls. A pillar of fire shot upward into the darkness of skies, and detonations, as of monster cannon, were heard at frequent intervals.

Dr. Fusakichi Omori, the eminent student of volcanic activity, has left Tokyo for the scene of the disaster, and expects to get to the island of Kagurajima in time to make first-hand observations. According to Doctor Omori, it is expected that the eruption on Ontake will last several days longer.

CHOSE DEATH BEFORE DISGRACE. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—Joseph Kindsmueller, who was an assistant clerk in the office of the assistant paymaster of the marine corps, with headquarters in this city, committed suicide today, rather than submit to arrest.

Kindsmueller was charged with the theft of two checks aggregating the sum of $244, with the possibility that he forged the endorsements necessary to have them cashed. Orders for his arrest had been given, but before he could be taken in custody he killed himself.

TITANIC CASES AGAIN UP. WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Test cases relating to damage suits against the steamship company for loss of life and property in the Titanic disaster April 14, 1912, will be considered by the United States supreme court tomorrow. These suits have been appealed to the supreme tribunal of the country to determine the responsibility of the White Star line for loss resulting from the sinking of the Titanic, and suits for hundreds of thousands of dollars will depend upon the verdict reached by the court in the test cases.

NEW YORK IN BLIZZARD. NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—One of the worst storms of wind which has ever swept over this city is blowing, the wind rising to a velocity at times of 74 miles an hour from the northwest.

At midnight last night the mercury marked only 12 degrees above zero, and going down, and the suffering among the poor of the city is intense. It is probably the worst storm here since the blizzard of March 12, 1888.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Tacked upon the postoffice appropriation bill, which was submitted to Congress today is a rider supported by the majority of the Democratic members of the house, providing that assistant postmasters shall be exempt hereafter from the provisions of the civil service laws. It is believed the clause will pass.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The light and power council of the labor unions engaged in electric work today declared an end and the long strike of employees of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.
